

Photography Contest!

TESL London is revamping our website and we need your help! We need pictures for our new website and Facebook page and we would like to showcase teachers and students in classrooms in London and surrounding areas.

So take your camera, and start taking pictures! [Be sure to ask the permission of people before you take their photo]

Who?: Entries may be submitted by TESL London members or students enrolled in a language program in the London area.

What? Photographs of teachers and students learning English, in classrooms, with computers, and in small groups. [Set the image quality on your camera as high as possible.] Each person may submit up to 3 photographs.

When? Submit by March 18th, 2011.

Where? Submit photos digitally to tesllondon@tesllondon.org

Consent: All people in the submitted photos must complete a consent form (see next page) and send to

Anne Van Gilst (Communications Chair)
